

Hodder Cambridge
Primary English
Foundation Stage

No Nap for Grandad

Ruth Price

Reading
Book A Fiction

But Lok has a plan.
Grandad loves balloons!

Pop, pop, pop!

Talk about the story.

*What is Lok's plan? What would your plan be?
How do balloons pop? Why can't Grandad nap?*

Grandad cannot nap.
He and Lok play!

Talk about the words.

What else can you do to a balloon?

What else can you pop? Why is mum saying 'Pat it, Lok'?

Poems and rhymes

How many people?

How many people live at your house?

At your house, your house?

One – my mummy

Two – my daddy

Three – my brother

Four – my sister.

There must be one more,

Let me see.

Oh yes ...

Number five is ME!

By Anonymous

Sing or say the poem.

Say the poem 'How many people?' for the right number of people in your house. Try clapping the poem as you say it.

Clap your hands

Clap your hands,
clap your hands,
Clap them just like me.

Tap your knees,
tap your knees,
Tap them just like me.

Pat your back,
pat your back,
Pat it just like me.

Tug your hair,
tug your hair,
Tug it just like me.

Hug yourself, hug yourself,
Hug, hug, hug yourself
Hug – just – like – me!

Adapted from Anonymous

Sing or say the poem.

Say the words in the last line of 'Clap your hands' slowly.

What other actions can you do? Try some different actions for the poem.